

Dreams and Visions

I will Pour Out My Spirit²⁸"It will come about after this That I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind; And your sons and daughters will prophesy, Your old men will dream dreams, Your young men will see visions. ²⁹"Even on the male and female servants I will pour out My Spirit in those days....

<http://biblehub.com/acts/2-17.htm>

Peter Preaches to the Crowd...¹⁶but this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷'AND IT SHALL BE IN THE LAST DAYS,' God says, 'THAT I WILL POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT ON ALL MANKIND; AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHECY, AND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE VISIONS, AND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM DREAMS; ¹⁸EVEN ON MY BONDSLAVES, BOTH MEN AND WOMEN, I WILL IN THOSE DAYS POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT And they shall prophesy....

There are different kinds of dreams and visions. Our Creator told me how to distinguish them and taught me about the different kinds. "open his eyes"

<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=2%20Kings%206:17-20> here we see that we can behold the spiritual reality all around us. (some would call this a type of vision but it isn't - it is just no longer being blind to reality; the unseen reality of demons and angels all around us - http://biblehub.com/1_corinthians/12-10.htm) there are open visions similar to "remote viewing" in which you can see plainly like a window opening in front of your eyes something that is happening elsewhere: <http://biblehub.com/john/1-48.htm> then there are open visions that symbolize events or real things (seeing imagery while awake of Divine Revelations about real events in the material world)

<http://biblehub.com/daniel/7-13.htm> such Divine Revelations are commonly called visions while you awake whether they occur in daylight or at night. <http://biblehub.com/daniel/4-13.htm> and <http://biblehub.com/daniel/8-2.htm> (and the Book of Revelation as a whole) While resting or sleeping, Divine Revelations come to those filled with the Holy Ghost in the form of dreams (these vivid dreams solidify the Truth declared in God's Word but can be about specific events, warnings, or teachings from God to give us understanding about things he wishes us to know) - <http://biblehub.com/matthew/2-12.htm>

In these ways God has taught me many things over the years, even about how to discern dreams and visions (try the spirits - http://biblehub.com/1_john/4-1.htm) If you are in a dream and you control the dream (can control what you do in the dream and can even change the imagery at will) that is your own imagination or dream (same with visions), if you have a dream or vision that you are being shown something that is CONTRARY to the Word of GOD, sows to pride, deception or any vice, that is a vision or dream from the spirit of error (fantasy, fiction), but IF you are shown a dream or vision that is FUNDAMENTALLY TRUE, Glorifies GOD is factually true about things past, present or future that is from the Holy Spirit! <http://biblehub.com/john/16-13.htm> There are dreams and visions that will show you actual physical things and real people and there are dreams and visions that show images that refer to actual events and truth about the seen and unseen creation of GOD. <http://biblehub.com/genesis/41-5.htm> God can obviously even give such messages to those who have not received His Spirit, but for those who have, I have found personally (in my case) that I received constant dreams and visions from our Creator ever since I was anointed (for the first seven years daily - many thousands upon thousands of dreams and visions from God to give me His Understanding of all things according to His Promise - <http://biblehub.com/john/14-26.htm> I find too many these days mocking such things (attributing dreams and visions to something they ate or laughing at or about anyone learning from God in these Divinely promised ways; sadly, they are fulfilling: http://biblehub.com/2_timothy/3-5.htm

So I conclude by ENCOURAGING everyone IN THE STRONGEST AND MOST URGENT WAY to ask GOD to mentor them personally; in all these Divinely Promised methods; I implore every soul all over the world to learn from the Holy Spirit, to personally and directly learn from our Eternal Creator; (make certain you have received the Holy Ghost!) -

- Jeremiah Ellis and Sandie Schooley-Perkins like this.

Jeremiah Ellis Are you aware of Joseph's dream precedent? He said to Pharoah that because he dreamt the dream twice, that indicates that the dream was given by God. Although both of Pharoahs dreams were different in imagery, they both dealt with the same subject. That is how to determine divine origine of a dream. Now apply that knowledge to king Nebukadnezzar's dreams and you will find that the traditionally-accepted interpretation of his dreams are a farce. And you should also discover the true meanings of his dreams.

Michael Swenson Yes, Jeremiah Ellis Walter Veith may not be correct about everything but the bulk of his onslaught series connects the scriptures, dreams and visions accurately to history and current events: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tLvLmhXCV7E...> GOD is patient, but He doesn't ALWAYS repeat every dream and vision He gives us. (I agree with the heart and intent of your comment; while only cautioning what I see far too many doing these days, (try to place GOD in an A,B,C, 1,2,3 "GOD only does this or that" compartmentalized connotation when GOD can do anything but lie and change (in His fundamental character and attributes or who He is essentially; that does NOT mean God won't do "new" things or different things than He has ever done in history - <http://biblehub.com/isaiah/43-19.htm>); which is why I caution creating any theology or doctrine that says GOD must do this or must do that or only does this or that) He can give us a dream or vision and then send or give confirmation by other means. <http://biblehub.com/luke/1-19.htm> and <http://biblehub.com/acts/9-12.htm>

Jeremiah Ellis I understand your concept about there being nothing impossible for God, and agree. But I also agree that God does not change, and God is not the author of confusion. Joseph had two dreams. Pharoah had two dreams. Nebukadnezzar had two dreams. Can you see a pattern? I believe the Bible is the word of God. He established the two-dream precedent with Joseph to reveal to us that biblically-recorded dreams are divinely given when they come in twos.

Visions are another story. They don't come in twos. In the fall of 2000, I had two dreams. They were both about the same thing. At the time, I thought they were very strange. I hadn't discovered Joseph's dream precedent yet. I went on a trip from New Mexico to Pennsylvania to see my father's wife right before she passed. On the way home, God gave me a vision of 9/11. When I arrived home in Albuquerque, I told my wife about the vision. She immediately said the things that she said in my two dreams, which confirmed that what I saw was a real vision and not just my imagination.

I am not saying that God can't give someone divine revelation in "a" dream. I just don't believe He would establish a precedent and then change. The type of dream may be important. All the biblical dream pairs are prophetic in nature. And my two dreams were prophetic in nature.

And its quite possible that some who have prophetic dreams either don't recall dreaming twice, or don't relate that info.

But in the case of King Nebukadnezzar, I believe its necessary to follow Joseph's dream precedent to truly understand the meanings of his dreams.

Michael Swenson Jeremiah Ellis not all dreams from God are repeated in the Holy Bible or in reality: <http://biblehub.com/genesis/40-16.htm> these men each had a single dream from God and each dream was interpreted by Joseph. God will send repetitive messages, dreams and visions as a method of confirmation but DOES NOT HAVE TO. In addition, He can send MORE than just two dreams or visions on a topic (the Book of Revelation is a prime example it says the same things over and over and over again to show it is certainly fixed and true from our Creator).

When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:

Michael Swenson I do want to thank Jeremiah Ellis for patiently and wisely pointing out one of the many Virtuous attributes of our Creator. That attribute is that He has multiple witnesses of Truth. http://biblehub.com/2_corinthians/13-1.htm and for that reason; often confirms dreams or visions with another or even more dreams or visions; witnessing to, testifying to, and confirming the Truth of the original. I am not in disagreement with the unchanging character and essence of the Almighty and that in that unchanging character and essence, He has demonstrated methods of operation. I am only contesting the propensity of thinking GOD MUST provide that second or third witness with SPECIFICALLY ANOTHER dream or vision, when He can and does provide such confirmation in other ways; by other means. (By other messengers, by His written and/or spoken words, by other aspects of creation). GOD Himself can testify truthfully, because He is Omniscient and Omni-present His Testimony is virtually instantaneously confirmed in seemingly infinite ways. His Word is so Powerful, it affects the entire universe and down to the smallest microbe, it permeates all of history, whole nations, yet a single soul, all at once. <https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=John+5> What we do can witness to the Truth of what we have seen and what we declare, the Spirit, the Word, Thoughts and Deeds, other parts of Creation are all methods of bearing witness. So while it may be that God chooses to confirm a dream or vision He gives a person or people, with another dream or vision or even multiple dreams and visions, He does not HAVE to, He can bear witness to the Truth of what He shows anyone in so many other ways, but Jeremiah wanted to point out that He DOES confirm or bear witness to what He teaches us whether He teaches us by words, by another person, by His Holy Spirit, by angels, by study of His Creation, or by dreams and visions, or any other method of Divine Communication with His Creation, and for pointing out that our Creator; due to unchanging Character: His Patience, Virtues and Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding, does provide such confirmation, I want to thank him for aptly and astutely mentioning that. Thank God for the witnesses. <https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=1%20John+5>
