

Which Translation?

October 9, 2014 at 5:48pm

Thank GOD for all the translations of the Holy Bible! <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/the-ineffably-awesome-holy-bible/621311364614493> He is able to use them all to lead wandering souls back to Him! (The Holy Bible is designed as the public foundation of truthful knowledge whereby all other literature is tried for veracity, but that does not mean there are no further books from our Creator. (as long as they stand on the Sure and True Foundation of the Holy Bible). Please read the proofs in this note before attempting to respond. <http://biblehub.com/proverbs/18-13.htm>

Every translation on earth has errors in the text (or what could be construed as such) (yes, even KJV; although, the 1611 Authorized is the best English version; if you cannot get a transliteration); that is because translations are not transliterations (word for word, verbatim records of what GOD, by the Holy Ghost told them to write down). It is also because even though those who KNOW our Creator and try their very hardest and best to be precise and perfect; especially regarding speaking and writing His Words; personally, STILL make mistakes! (None of us have been perfected while we are still in flesh and blood; incarnate - http://biblehub.com/1_corinthians/13-12.htm)

All translations into all the common languages have the most difficult task of determining the right word or words for each of the original. For example take the number one thousand. In Greek there is a word that means that exact number, and another world that translates also to 1000 in english but has an entirely different connotation. (referring to fulfillment, a total amount of completion- why the "Millennial" reign is widely misunderstood -

<http://www.godempowersyou.com/documentation/HistoricalTestimonyandMinistry/TheFirstResurrection.pdf> and

<http://www.godempowersyou.com/documentation/HistoricalTestimonyandMinistry/MansChronologicalExistenceExplained.pdf> and

http://www.godempowersyou.com/documentation/HistoricalTestimonyandMinistry/Explanations%20\(2\)%20\(2\).pdf%20(2).pdf)) Likewise, the word pharmakeia transliterates into pharmaceuticals, drugs, but in KJV day such alchemists were considered sorcerers. So the translators used that word because for that time and in that language the original connotation wasn't lost; even though it has been today.

<https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/our-creator-told-us-in-the-holy-bible-all-nations-would-be-deceived-by-pharmaceu/511466405598990>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KbikBVVkrNA&index=13&list=PL0EF45DDA53AD2190> - beware of INTENTIONAL deceptions in translations (many modern versions omit clear references that show the Deity of Christ - <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/god/719346771477618> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/holy-bible-versus-the-quran/719366671475628>, and also omit references that clearly condemn all kinds of sexual immorality; including homosexuality <http://www.blastthetrumpet.org/PublicLetters/AAAUpdatedPublicAlertsMattersofLifeandDeath/Are%20You%20A%20Christia1.pdf> - those INTENTIONAL modifications of GOD's Word is what is condemned by all the "do not add to, take away from, or change..." instructions God gave to the scribes recording His Words; as communicated directly to them by His Holy Spirit. BUT GOD can STILL use even those perverted translations to draw people to Him! (Once you begin to see the deceptions in such Bible translations, you should seek a better one that is closer in connotation to the original languages). Brother Veith, is sincere, he is studious, he is knowledgeable, I recommend viewing his entire "onslaught series".

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6iFv0AnuUmK&list=PL0EF45DDA53AD2190#t=310> (that does not mean I agree with all of his conclusions, I only recommend viewing his presentations as one of the best multimedia presentations I have personally viewed to date; linking history to God's Revelations in the Holy Bible. (I disagree mostly with much of what he admittedly "speculates" on; regarding the Book of Revelation, but that does not mean we should dismiss ALL of his commentary on the scriptures and history or future events by any means). Frankly, I believe the man deserves praise for such a work and effort; it is for the most part edifying and true. (He doesn't have a full knowledge regarding all the original manuscripts found to date, but that doesn't mean his presentation on translations should be ignored: <http://carm.org/manuscript-evidence> and https://www.google.com/webhp?sourceid=chrome-instant&rlz=1C1GIGM_enUS535US535&ion=1&espv=2&ie=UTF-8#q=josh%20mcdowell%20evidence%20that%20demands%20a%20verdict for more information on the validity and literary accuracy of the Holy Bible and as modern translations compare to original manuscripts of antiquity.

The common thread of changed and omitted verses in modern translations that have been INTENTIONALLY altered to be deceptive is that they alter or omit verses that relate to the Divinity of Christ (they alter many if not all such verses that refer to the Incarnation of GOD Almighty plainly; because that is the core issue - acknowledging or denying the One True GOD) - you can see such important alterations and omissions if you look at a parallel reference that compares versions; like <http://biblehub.com/acts/8-37.htm> when you click the link you can see many versions totally omit what was recorded as a clear acknowledgement of the "Son of GOD". And such modern translations have as many as thousands of such alterations and omissions: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KbikBVVkrNA&index=13&list=PL0EF45DDA53AD2190> and <http://www.jesus-is-lord.com/deity.htm> and <http://www.contenderministries.org/biblestudy/kjodeityofchrist.php> and if you do research you will find hundreds to thousands of such examples.

When Christ is talking about not one jot or tittle shall fail (<http://biblehub.com/matthew/5-18.htm>) He is referring to the exact words He told the scribes to write down by the Divine Inspiration of His Holy Spirit. (http://biblehub.com/2_timothy/3-16.htm) BUT that does not mean errors in printing Bible versions or translations, "typos" or any of the misunderstandings between languages all over the world!

Each version of the Holy Bible that has NOT been intentionally altered, was/is done to the best of the translator's abilities to render one language into another! idioms all over the world change the very connotations of words! Like how many think Christ was born in a manger or barn or cave, etc. (those are just popular ideas brought about by not knowing the original language and customs, architecture etc.) - <http://christiananswers.net/christmas/mythsaboutchristmas.html> and <https://answersingenesis.org/holidays/christmas/born-in-a-barn-stable/> and <http://blog.bibleplaces.com/2006/12/in-typical-christmas-pageant-one-of.html> and <http://www.biblearchaeology.org/post/2008/11/08/the-manger-and-the-inn.aspx#Article> - to this day poor regions of the world, will have a small dwelling and their animals may come inside for the night. In other words the Bible states that Joseph and Mary visited their relatives but due to the declared census, the little homes were all full of relatives (the guest chamber was already filled up); so they ended up on the lower floor where the animals would come in for the night (still in the little home) and laid Yahoshuah in one of the common feeding troughs in the architectural common style of homes for that period (and still in use in various places today). <http://www.bible.ca/archeology/archeology-four-room-house-ancient-israel.jpg> and <http://www.bible.ca/D-Xmas-story.htm> All that accurate detail is lost in translations because translations cannot always precisely and fully convey idioms, connotations, customs of cultures and definitions of words; due to the fact that each word in one language can have many meanings in another or one language can have a more precise vocabulary and no exact equivalent in another language; so translators have a monumental undertaking when trying to stay true to the original! (Give translators and translations some understanding and realize the common language Bible translations are designed to SAVE SOULS to LEAD to KNOWING our CREATOR, who is TRUTH, so we can all learn from Him directly; and over time as we mature in the Faith, and grow in Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding, we then discover more about Him and His Creation; the universe in which we exist.)

The only way for serious students to get the "do not add to, change..." VERBATIM version of the Holy Bible is to get a transliteration (or learn Hebrew and Greek and get your own Tanakh (Old Testament; Hebrew - Torah, Nevi'im, Ketuvim) and Septuagint (New Testament -Greek); yet, even such versions should be continuously scrutinized for accuracy against the oldest manuscripts (whether complete codices or partial authentic remnants) available); that shows the original text, and then you will see how every translation is just the best the translators could do for their time and language (if they were godly with true intent of keeping to the original) or if they were deceivers then such translators willfully changed, added and/or omitted; (violated Divine Instructions) such things as they chose; (for which, all who do that, receive their own Divine consequences). virtually, every translation on earth in every language errs almost IMMEDIATELY in the Holy Bible in that they all omit the title of God in the very first phrase of the Holy Bible. "In the Beginning..." originally stated In the Aleph-Tav, you can see that if you have a transliteration plainly - <http://biblehub.com/interlinear/genesis/1-1.htm> (see that word under 853 - strong's concordance link reference number in most all interlinears - and how it claims to be "untranslatable" but it's NOT - https://www.google.com/search?q=aleph+tav&rlz=1C1GIGM_enUS535US535&espv=2&biw=1066&bih=702&tbm=isch&tbo=u&source=univ&sa=X&ei=Ryl3VICqGY23yAT1goGIDA&ved=0CCQQAQ&dpr=1.5 anyone can see that Aleph-Tav is the Beginning/End title of GOD!

http://www.lasttrumpet.org/aleph_tav.htm So even though the KJV may be preferred to other versions, it also omits the very title of Yahoshuah right away! (People have been denying Him as the Divine for quite some time). So now some of you might wonder if you are serious about the Word of GOD, where can you get a transliteration? They are available online, I use this printed version and a strong's exhaustive concordance along with other biblical dictionaries, lexicons, references.

<http://www.biblestudytools.com/interlinear-bible/> or http://www.scripture4all.org/OnlineInterlinear/Hebrew_Index.htm In addition, I want to mention that NONE of the places in the Holy Bible where it says "do not add..." means that no more books from God will follow, OR WE WOULDN'T HAVE the rest of the Holy Bible today! It only means WHEN GOD SPEAKS TO ANYONE AND TELLS THEM TO SPEAK OR WRITE HIS WORDS DOWN, THEY ARE TO DO SO EXACTLY!

(VERBATIM) - <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/god-speaks/574521232626840> Notice the Holy Bible even tells us more books from our Creator would be coming to us over time! ("give them their portion of meat in due season..." -

<http://biblehub.com/luke/12-42.htm> and - <http://biblehub.com/john/6-63.htm> and

<http://biblehub.com/matthew/16-12.htm> It is the teachings, the words of God that feed our spirits!

http://biblehub.com/1_peter/2-2.htm and He tells us scrolls (books) will be opened (revealed) in the passage of time. <http://biblehub.com/revelation/20-12.htm> and He tells us furthermore that each and every soul filled with His Holy Spirit is effectively a letter or book from GOD!

http://biblehub.com/2_corinthians/3-3.htm So let no one think the Holy Bible is the entire compendium of Words from our Creator and that He has given us no more; when in fact the whole world cannot contain the Books from our Creator! <http://biblehub.com/john/21-25.htm>
