

I don't live in a flight path and about the same time as men in camouflage started snooping around my property, military helicopters and spy planes started doing regular fly-bys and fly overs my property.