Public

Recently I read a comment from a woman of God about what her idea of the conduct of man of God should be. She counseled women to expect the man of God to pursue her and pursue her rather exclusively from initial meeting on through to holy matrimony. In this particular discourse I was not aware or did not infer that the man she was referring to was engaged or married as she criticized him for "liking" photos of "semi-naked" women.

These days; in a multi-cultural world "semi-naked" can mean just about anything short of being completely covered from head to foot in thick dark cloth; so I really had no way of gauging the term without actually seeing the photos to which she referred. Without Divine Revelation or the gift of mind reading I could not tell from her manner of speech even in context if she was referencing actual pornography, or women on a beach in bathing suits, or just common attire for the vast majority on earth. But I CHOSE to speak up in defense of avoiding being hyper-critical of men properly in general "liking" beautiful women (in their subjectivity) and likewise women in general "liking" handsome men (in their personal subjectivity).

On the one hand she mimicked the common thought of many women that they want to be pursued and desired, selected and chosen (but only by WELCOME admirer(s)); while on the other criticizing a man for even "liking" an image. I responded that in my opinion if men do NOT "like" women it is virtually sacrilegious! By this I mean that it is TRULY sacrilegious not to be grateful for any gift of GOD; especially the Gift of Salvation through Yahoshuah, the One and Only Messiah. <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/god-made-salvation-easy/737032859709009> But I emphasized that women in general from my own perspective were one of the reasons I thanked and praised GOD; even shouting HALLELUYAH! to Him! As I see it; according to Holy Writ, God made the entire universe for His good pleasure; everything in it simply because it pleased Him to do so. After He had made everything He had made, He plainly stated it was all good, all very good; until observing Adam the Man, was all alone. God our Creator, the Eternal One, made His Creation, the entire universe to fellowship with Him; commune with Him; know Him and exist with Him in perfect harmony; so observing Adam alone speaks to the core reason that Creation exists at all! It was the first time we see in the Creation account where our Creator stated it was NOT good; not good for Adam to be alone. So He made Eve IN PARTICULAR; SPECIFICALLY FOR and AS COMPANION and HELPER to Adam. Understand this, GOD made the ENTIRE UNIVERSE for HIS GOOD PLEASURE; but in His Infinite Wisdom, Knowledge and Understanding; He, the Master Builder of the Universe, the Chief Engineer of engineers; DESIGNED, WITH FORETHOUGHT and INTENT, EVE as a Divine Gift; Purposely for Adam! For men therefore not to Praise and Thank God for women in general is in my opinion; telling our Creator; He didn't do a very good job; and frankly, I do go so far as to say it is sacrilegious! I'm not saying women should be worshiped, but I am saying that maltreating, despising or being ungrateful and unappreciative of women is a direct offense to our Creator!

Apparently, it was obvious to her that the man she was criticizing was "lusting" after other women while already seriously involved with one. When I understood that, I agreed wholeheartedly with her point of view; that it would be offensive to that person who is promised exclusive love and adoration to be getting in her social newsfeed apparent evidence that admiration of other women or photos of other women. This is a given! If you are married or engaged to be married, ogling others in front of your spouse or would be spouse is of course offensive to them! On the other hand, it lets he or she know what is in the heart and mind of the other and if not already married gives them time to break off the engagement. BUT this situation I did not infer from what I read; so what I was perceiving was that on the one hand this woman of God wanted to be pursued by a man of God; BUT pursued EXCLUSIVELY from first glance so to speak. What position does such an attitude put men in?

1) If we are in the course of our lives to avoid giving women, people we meet or see, a single compliment; as harmless as "liking" a particular photo of them; until we are CERTAIN at first glance that SHE MUST BE THE ONE! then it is no small miracle indeed that there are any marriages or children on earth at all!

2) HOW without DIVINE REVELATION is a man to KNOW "she is the one" and compliment and approach and pursue her EXCLUSIVELY to holy matrimony? We would all have to possess a level of omniscience similar to our Creator!

3) Suppose even his passing compliment is unwanted or rejected in any way; did the man pass up his one and only chance at a happy marriage?

4) Want to be pursued but in our modern world, if such pursuit is by anyone other than a possible mutual attraction this immediately turns to "stalking".

Bottom line men end up "damned if they do" and "damned if they don't"; often confused and emasculated by in my frank opinion being hyper-critical of the way God fundamentally designed men and women to be.

This whole notion of ONE "soul mate" out of billions on earth; would mean God is CRUEL! seriously! It would be WORSE than trying to find a needle in a haystack! The Truth is men and women generally are designed by our Creator to love and be loved most of all by HIM! but during our incarnation are also generally designed by our Creator to love and be loved by a lifelong mate. Now mankind has perverted that design and many mistake "love" for sexual attraction; hence all the forms of sexual perversion on earth today. But in Truth, a godly and happy marriage can and does exist between men and women of God, lifelong as long as He is truly in both their lives and they pray and do the things that keeps their love for God and each other from dying; or growing cold. So realistically, just how are men and women going to find "the love of their lives"; given true personal free will to do so from BOTH the man and the woman.

From seeing arises desire; therefore typically; not necessarily in ALL cases; but typically a man will SEE a woman or image of a woman and vice versa and typically; not necessarily in ALL cases, eyes might meet and in an instant both know whether or not they find the other "attractive". That attraction might pass, wane or grow depending on what follows. But this is typically how men and women meet and begin to talk to each other in a free society where both the men and the women get to decide who they will marry. So women want a man to know what he wants; men in general DO know what they want and in general it is a woman they find attractive who is ALSO attracted to them! (yes, yes there are all kinds of other criteria; I'm just speaking INITIALLY as to what draws men and women together in a free and open, liberated society under God our Creator.) To claim our perceptive abilities play no part in who we select as our mate is being dishonest, to claim men and women are not inherently sexual beings designed as such by our Creator is to deny the overwhelming evidence presented by billions of souls on earth. This Christian tendency to denigrate themselves and others for "lusting" is to take the text and point of Christ OUT of context! He clearly was referring to married persons "having eyes full of adultery" in other words for people who are already married to be contemplating sexual relations with others; not their spouses was what He was addressing; but God KNOWS men and women inherently are made to desire one another and it is perfectly natural and acceptable; nothing improper or wrong with that in any way! indiscriminate sex acts with anyone and everyone as fornicators is! But to condemn a man and woman who have passionate affection for each other and so much so that after thought and discourse on values decide to enter into holy matrimony is twisting the scriptures and creates unhealthy sexual repression. "desire" in both the hebrew and greek when discussing that natural relationship between husband and wife refers to longing, implies and we can infer that passion or "lust" (eros-erotic love) is involved in what brings and keeps husbands and wives together; and it is that kind of love/passion/desire/longing that is exclusively PROPER in holy matrimony. YES! of course marriage brings far more to it and far more to be considered than just our physical senses BUT to claim our physical senses play no part whatsoever and that all lust and desire is evil; is to create a most unhappy people who end up thinking all sexual thoughts; even those natural tendencies that are proper in marriage are to be condemned; and that is simply untrue. Between husbands and wives that is where the most intense passion should be; and not being able to express those desires to each other leads to what should not be (adulteries, improper fantasies OUTSIDE of the marriage relationship).

A man reaches a certain age and longs for that special someone and likewise a woman; and if God made just one person out of billions capable of fulfilling that longing; as I stated before that would be CRUEL! what if he or she died young, no "soul mate" for the other half! what if he or she was born in a culture of arranged marriages; too bad for the other half! he or she was forced to marry apart from their own free will. truth is, for each godly man and each godly woman, there are millions that could engage them in lifelong happy holy matrimony; some happier and more fulfilling than others; but nevertheless happy lifelong marriages in Christ really are a matter of moment by moment, day by day choice for both the woman of God and man of God so engaged. Two people can be good for each other and not be the bubbly, happy, type of personalities at all. You must know yourselves and spend time getting to know each other (discussing core values, dreams, ambitions, life purpose, specifically what you want out of marriage, and toward the final deciding moments that would include what you want sexually as well out of marriage; for example I personally do not want a woman who is ashamed of her appearance and her own sexuality; I would want my wife to know that I desire and thoroughly enjoy seeing her the way God made her to be from head to toe! And as such would hope she would wear sexy attire, lingerie privately for me, I would want her to understand I would NOT have married her if I did not find her beautiful in every way and so to have no shame or hangups about her own body or to be too embarrassed to talk about ways she would feel more loved by me whether it be daily expressions, words, kind acts or sexual ones. I would want her to understand God gave us mouths and tongues because He intended us to speak to each other, communicate and unashamedly so and to not expect myself to read her mind or body language or any other "hints" women THINK are so obvious and men can seemingly be oblivious to); make sure you have discussed and agreed upon what is important to each of you during courtship BEFORE deciding to marry; in order to stand the best chance at a truly compatible and fulfilling relationship in holy matrimony.

So the reality is, a polite and kind man or woman by "liking" a photo should not be accused of having done anything more than that; if there is no evidence to support such accusation! It would be a cruel world indeed if men and women are faulted simply for paying a compliment to another!

I will speak personally, after my ex-wife so disdained our marriage <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/what-happened-to-me/546254465453517>, I ZEALOUSLY prayed for Divine Discernment; so I would NEVER be so deceived by anyone ever again; especially since God fundamentally designed us to love and be loved; so I was left still looking for such a Great and Wonderful Gift from Above, as the "love of my life". Even though I was unhealthy, I dreamt of the day, I would recover and be well again, well enough to marry again; but I was aware that what was done to me had left me with challenges I decided to overcome. One of those challenges was my total distrust of all other human beings to such a level that every interaction no matter how small was extremely stressful to say the least; so virtually bedridden I didn't have much of a choice but to try my best to socialize online. I recognized even the thought of finding a woman attractive in any way was causing panic attacks; an understandable but unwanted fear as if my life itself was under attack; even though I was consciously aware of it; couldn't stop it from happening and would immediately look away from any woman I found attractive in the slightest recognizing a flight response was physically taking place on any such occasion. I decided this was inherently unhealthy for me and so joined an online match making service; but one at such a distance that there was not an immediate chance of communication in any way other than online. For my part, I was serious about finding a godly wife and yet not one that was sexually inhibited by her own or societal presuppositions of what that meant. I did not want a materialistic shop-a-holic, but a prudent and wise woman circumspect and knowledgeable in all respects. I also wanted a woman who was at least wise enough to understand that men are fundamentally EXTREMELY easy to please! VERY simple! Good GOD! Good food! Good love! pretty much as long as those three things are in our lives on a regular basis, most of us are exceedingly happy! Sure we live purpose driven lives; but ultimately it centers around such basic categories that we are fundamentally designed by our Creator to need. We NEED Him for proper inspiration, guidance, learning, living in all ways! We need basic nourishment for our bodies for survival, and even a hard life or challenging existence can be happy where there is true love! (In other words, we labor, we work, our careers if we are wise 1) for GOD and the Salvation of souls 2) for those three categories! GOD! FOOD! LOVE! (family and friends) as such our careers are a means to an end ultimately that services those Divinely Designed needs. - losing a job or even a career is NOTHING compared to not having any or all of those 3 basic needs in our lives.)

When wicked people upset that basic paradigm; by Divine Design, that is when extreme and pervasive depression set into many lives. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zCpjmvalgNA> From my perspective, for satanists to overtly attack the basic family molecule, what makes for a stable society, clearly shows just how important godly families by His Design really are. In fact, I believe SO IMPORTANT, that in a modern society, godly homemakers should be PAID! People have been TRICKED into thinking ONLY YOUR TAXES pay for all public services, but that is JUST media propaganda put out by the goons enslaving us all with their wicked ways. Taxes NEVER have been needed by the ruling elite, it is just their way of subjugating, enslaving everyone else. When America secured its independence from these wicked persons, the people, gave themselves the RIGHT to mint currency as necessary for national solvency. What this means is there is enough MONEY to do WHATEVER the people all agree to! Sadly the illusion otherwise is so ingrained through satanic control of the world bank and propaganda in the mainstream media, people just can't seem to grasp this concept. <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/treatise-on-greed-and-corruption/517410181671279> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/strategies-of-war/674592165953079> The world in which we live could be radically different! radically better! if people would only agree to make it so.

In a godly society, both men and women CAN work should they choose to; BUT in a Divinely Ordained Family of One Man and One Woman raising godly children together, the Woman typically should be FREE to do the VERY NEEDED task of properly raising their children in godly, healthy ways (wages should be SUFFICIENT for ONE SPOUSE; typically the father, to provide for that family food, clothing, shelter and some fun or entertainment for good morale as a family unit) I see the woman's task (generally speaking) of being the godly homemaker as so important to a stable and prosperous society and world, that I would see that she is PAID to do so; if I had the means to implement I would! and let this serve as a public motion for it! the REAL REASON the "American Dream" is fast becoming the "American Nightmare" is for two reasons 1) an overall societal wicked departure from GOD and His Holy Instructions to Live By as found plainly written in the Holy Bible <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/observable-divine-judgments/732720553473573> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/americans-and-citizens-of-the-world-freedom-and-life-comes-from-god/748905988521696> and 2) very evil oppressors have installed policies of economic hardship as just one of the measures for <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/depopulation-by-intent-or-accident/544721958940101>; the evidence is overwhelming that global suffering is by their evil intent in this regard <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/why-so-much-suffering/735857516493210> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/the-worlds-most-wanted-criminals-part-3/674607209284908> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/why-care/814117475333880> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/conspiracy-theories-or-plain-truth/662377083841254> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/the-planned-demoralization-of-america/632305113515118> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/brainwashing/643617432383886> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/what-is-happening-to-america/573663929379237>

And just to speak from a personal and honest perspective about what leads up to marriage. I AM WELL AWARE that it SHOULD BE built upon and sustained by mutual godly values in Christ generally, but in an ideal world that should be EVERYONE! as such, I go into further details on spiritual compatibility; that I received Divine Revelation on; especially after praying for "Divine Discernment". these two are more about the spiritual man

(<https://www.facebook.com/video.php?v=215073145238319&set=vb.100002069048072&type=3&theater> and

<https://www.facebook.com/video.php?v=215081225237511&set=vb.100002069048072&type=3&theater> and these two concern more about the natural man

(<https://www.facebook.com/video.php?v=496151213797176&set=vb.100002069048072&type=3&theater>

and <https://www.facebook.com/video.php?v=496151623797135&set=vb.100002069048072&type=3&theater> - I publicly apologize for my use of foul language and may edit those out; just too tired at the moment to do so; appreciate your prayers for me in that regard - that evil rebellion caused me and is still causing me intense suffering and as such extreme anger at times comes through when addressing such ungodly issues; leading to so much suffering and hardship that shouldn't exist between men and women based on their ungodly ideas.) yes, I am aware that billions of women do NOT use sex to blackmail or control men or try to; but there are far too many that do; so understand the revelations are not saying EVERYONE is EXACTLY as such, they were to give me discernment in an area, I was clearly lacking so much!

What I saw in the revelations were thousands upon thousands of lifetimes, marriages, and what I saw was that ALL of them have their own struggles, ups and downs, trials and tribulations; not necessarily as a result of that particular man and woman who met and joined together; but just by being in a world of people with free will, who sometimes use that will in malicious ways, evil ways, wicked ways, selfish ways, uncaring ways, unloving ways, perverse ways, that do us all harm to a greater or lesser extent. Even seeming "perfect" matches, will still have moments of trials and tribulations, still have moments of disagreements and arguments, to a greater or lesser extent. Holy Matrimony in Christ is loving each other enough to pull through those trials, tribulations and struggles together. Short of infidelity or in my case even when I was willing to try and pray and work through her adulteries, her unwillingness to face them or change, and the resulting resentment of my own godly living caused her to pass from the right choice of loving faithfulness to murderous intent and actions. (the reason the truly wicked hate the truly righteous, is their right living convicts them of their wickedness, wicked people take comfort in thinking EVERYONE is just as evil and perverse as they are as an excuse NOT to repent and call upon our Creator to transform them; so they follow in the most evil and delusional path of those who murdered Christ. <http://biblehub.com/john/7-7.htm>)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t0bOm5c43js>

There are some couples that are truly more compatible, truly happier together than other matches, to say there isn't would be untrue to God and the Revelations, but ALL marriages have their moments! ALL marriages; BECAUSE not one of us are perfect in flesh and blood; so it ABSOLUTELY takes genuine LOVE to glue a couple together and that is why Holy Matrimony joined by the One TRUE GOD is what it really takes for a lifelong truly fulfilling happy marriage. <http://biblehub.com/mark/10-9.htm> those committing adultery are committing a very great crime against God, against themselves, against their families; and especially the one to whom they vowed undying love to before our Creator and the Holy Angels. It is extremely evil and destructive to the whole of mankind!

<https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/the-ten-commandments-part-1/733691096709852> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/the-ten-commandments-part-2/733693013376327> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/the-ten-commandments-part-3/733693450042950> such lack of regard for true Holy Matrimony and godly families; is a sign that civilization is about to collapse, to fall into depravity, destruction and if the people fail to repent complete ruin and death. People THINK what is done behind closed doors between consenting adults affects no one, but the truth is everything we think say and do affects not only ourselves but the whole world to a greater or lesser extent. Every little slip into personal sin and corruption adversely affects the whole society; as I have so clearly demonstrated.

<https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/why-care/814117475333880> Even uncaring omission to help and love others as you would wish others would care for you; leaves the world a very cold and terrible place in which billions go hungry, naked, persecuted, and otherwise maltreated. It is not just the overt actions of evil in this world that causes so many to suffer; it is all the good that is left undone due to selfishness and apathy. The lack of respect of marriage by anyone, is an assault on them all, this is why adultery is a crime punishable by death; it is a direct attack on the core molecule of a sane, decent, healthy and prosperous society. Read those notes on the ten commandments if you are not convinced of the true heinousness of adultery. That said, marriages TRULY NEED GOD in them as the Peacemaker and the Everlasting Loving Power that will hold them together! And likewise is yet another reason ALL children should be raised in the Truth of Knowing our Loving Creator and that mankind really cannot live or survive without Him! God is absolutely essential for the health, welfare of not only marriages but of mankind universally. <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/teach-the-children-truth-teach-them-well/515687638510200> and <https://www.facebook.com/notes/michael-swenson/why-we-all-need-instructions-from-our-creator-to-live-by/533444303401200>

In the practical sense though just how does a man or woman go about finding such compatibility? Prayerfully, yes; but practically? Day to day we may meet and pass by so many; at a glance people know if visually speaking they find someone personally attractive or not; that may lead to a look, a gesture, a word, a compliment, etc. But often people are so overwhelmed in the daily lives, that they may not be as perceptive or intuitive as they would otherwise; so in the modern era online dating sites abound. Some might realize our physical senses can deceive us, place too high a priority on sexual attraction and limit weighing the matters that are truly important to us when selecting a prospective mate; and/or prospective father or mother of our children. Online matchmaking services can be a godsend if that has been your dilemma; which brings me back to my personal experiences and the intent of my overall discourse; which is not to be hypercritical of human nature; when we are simply acting in ways that are consistent with Divine Design.

Men generally are going to pay attention to a woman they find attractive, to see if there is even the possibility of anything beyond noticing they think she is attractive; online a "like" may be for many reasons; but typically a repeated "like" of personal photos or profile images indicates he or she is attracted or at least giving a compliment. In my online dating experience to break through the panic attacks I was having at one time and in an effort to seriously find true compatibility, I must have gotten emails from hundreds of women, photos etc. I would be lying if I said I didn't find each of them beautiful in their own ways; in varying degrees. (thankfully for men, God made so many wonderfully beautiful women on earth; that He most definitely assured the continuation of humanity; and the most enjoyable process of it!) Most all of them recognized that men generally are very visual creatures and so sent exquisite photos of themselves; some in various forms of attire; some with more clothes or less covering themselves. I, personally, did not judge a woman who sent me photos of herself in a bikini or lingerie as somehow less than honorable. A woman, at least one who has any wisdom whatsoever, KNOWS for a man to make a vow of lifelong holy matrimony, he must love her! all of her! yes, her personality, but if he is not passionately affected, how is that woman to perceive she is loved and valued and if procreation is only a duty how miserable indeed the marriage. Now if a woman sent me a truly pornographic image, even if she was attractive, then I personally prayed for her but did not consider her further; but I personally did not consider a woman who sent me a photo of herself in a bathing suit or lingerie to be pornographic. For me, I was GRATEFUL, that she understood husbands generally want their wives to dress privately very sexy for them! and that she understood what men generally think of as sexy is not a one piece opaque flannel nightgown; no matter how comfy such a garment might be.

How is a woman supposed to know what he thinks "sexy" is? This should NOT be rocket science! why do you think men's magazines generate billions of dollars in sales?! pornography is one thing; but typically lingerie models are NOT wearing opaque nightgowns that cover them from the neck to the ground completely. In other words, it is OBVIOUS what men GENERALLY think of as sexy and wise women need to understand that about men when it comes to keeping a happy marriage.

But someone who did not understand the context of the photos I may have stored over the years on hard drives of these lovely creatures who so honored me with an image or photos of themselves; might think I was some kind of pervert; when in fact, I personally think it a very evil thing for men and women to walk around in feigned prudishness deceitfully. It is a simple fact that both men and women find other men and women in general attractive more or less in varying degrees; to criticize men and women for simply being the way God Designed us to be; is actually being somewhat critical of Him! (and I think being deceitful to others; not just themselves) for criticizing such persons or finding fault with others simply for "liking" a photographic image of an attractive person - understand I am NOT talking about pornography, and I DO NOT view a model in a bathing suit or lingerie as pornography - I, personally, think it is FAR MORE pornographic to see people dry humping on a dance floor sweating over each other in a club; than a photo of beautiful woman wearing lingerie or a bikini, but not doing any kind of sex act whatsoever; which as I stated, in my view, is not pornographic at all; or public beaches would have to be closed for indecent exposure. So I don't know how many of such images women sent me over the years, but I prayed for them all to find godly husbands, who would properly love such incredibly wonderful creations of Almighty God. I realized some were younger than others (not ALL youth, but many are acquiring wisdom for themselves and in the process will make more mistakes than those elders who have already made and hopefully learned from them; not ALL, but in general, such is the common path of incarnation; there are of course the wise and exceptional; namely those truly Anointed and raised in the full knowledge of our Creator, Yahoshuah.) and I saw too many by Divine Revelations would make mistakes, too many be unfaithful in marriage, etc. but that did not stop me from honestly still considering them physically beautiful, aesthetically pleasing to the eye or prevent me from praying for their salvation and caring for them enough to hope and pray that they each would learn from their mistakes, their sins, and repent and receive Christ and eventually find true love and happiness by His Grace.

At the heart of what grieves me about being so critical of someone for liking men or women in general or attractive people or liking a photo of models by either men or women, is that our society and culture sadly has become so corrupt; that far too many people jump to evil conclusions in their thoughts, words and deeds IMMEDIATELY. For example, two brothers might hug each other in an airport haven't seen each other for years, or a military reunion and because the sodomites have invaded politics and media and even our schools, suddenly they're perceived as gay or homosexual or bi-sexual. Or if a man pays a compliment even if it is just politely intended it IMMEDIATELY translates in far too many as being a pick-up or his intention is perverted or somehow sexual harassment or otherwise wants to sleep with her. (like criticizing someone over liking movie stars for the way they look, or for any other reason, or models, etc.) It MAY be the case, but the problem is, many times it is NOT and decent people due to pervasive corruption are more and more looked on suspiciously and evilly; which should it continue; leads to betrayals and worse even wrongful imprisonments and deaths!

My whole life, especially after I was Anointed with the Holy Ghost, I've been very fond of children during that time of innocence, when they are small, young, innocent and curious about everything in the world as just one big adventure! love their questions, their manners, everything about that age when they still have no knowledge of good and evil. When Christ came into my life, every small child I see, I have the tremendous urge to give a great big hug to and pray over and bless! But I live in a world that has become so pervasively corrupt, that "strange men" are automatically considered pedophiles; instead of the truly godly intent of wanting the children to grow up in the knowledge and blessings of God with no impure, unholy or improper thoughts toward them whatsoever! So decent people are suffering due to an overwhelming pervasive attitude of just and cautious suspicion of EVERYONE; thanks to the most wicked souls loose on earth!

Yes, there are men and women by the billions that hug friends and family and are NOT gay, bisexual, perverted or evil in any way! Yes, there are men and women that truly love and care for children that in NO WAY are pedophiles! Yes, there are GODLY men and women that actually find other men and women attractive and might even pay a compliment or "like" a photo on social media that have no intention whatsoever that isn't honorable in the process!

It seems the righteous will go on suffering in this world due to false accusations, wicked people, perverted and unclean consciences, until and unless the people of the world choose to repent and call upon Christ and walk in and with Him in Spirit and Truth; so they can see things purely for what they are. Not everyone is evil and perverted! Yes, there are those who are! And in discerning those who truly are, they SHOULD BE under arrest! In the meantime, try not to condemn fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, merely for "liking" a photo of someone; especially if you're a woman who expects men to be the ones to pursue or show an interest in you and yet criticize the man who does show an interest in you and perhaps others just trying to find one that might show interest in return. This doesn't mean the man doesn't know what he wants, it simply means the man doesn't KNOW ENOUGH about any of the ones he has shown an interest in to decide as yet! After all, while physical beauty may be the initial impetus that led him toward you, a happy and good marriage is based on so much more than just looks!

So if men and women are truly honest, out of the billions of souls on earth, each will find more than one person (probably many thousands and if they could see the whole world many millions) they think in the moment are physically attractive; generally speaking; women will find some men generally handsome and men will find some women generally beautiful each according to their own subjectivity. To think that the man you marry or woman you marry has never seen another handsome man or beautiful woman or never will is simply unrealistic. To think a man or woman who honestly can acknowledge such is a player or a woman who honestly acknowledges such, a whore, is being hyper-critical. Men and women generally, will look the world over, if possible, for true love and as such they are bound to "like" many; there is no evil or harm in that whatsoever. It is only AFTER an engagement, a meeting of the minds or serious courting has begun that it should be considered an offense for either of those so engaged to be showing such flattery, compliments or interests in others an unfaithful or immoral act.

In other words, FAR TOO MANY 'Christians' automatically jump to the conclusion that if a man or woman even LOOKS in the direction of an attractive person(s) that they are evilly lusting after such person(s). I warn them that so quickly jump to such accusations:

<http://biblehub.com/titus/1-15.htm>

15To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.

It is one thing if a man or woman truly is in the bonds of pornography and sin and are in need of deliverance; but saying a person has a nice suit on or nice dress or otherwise polite and courteous compliment such as "liking" a photo or image of them or them and their family or pets; should not so hastily be misconstrued (even if it is liking a man or woman in a bathing suit as the case may be). Likewise, it is quite possible that for those on "dating sites" to have received many letters of interest from others or photos from others; it does not make them evil for thanking such correspondents or choosing one or more to get to know better in their quest for true love; it does become such if they make more serious commitment; especially formal engagement and do not inform others of their decision in that regard but continue in what would then be unfaithful and improper relations; undermining holy matrimony.

Jacqui Keogh I used to teach the young men and women in our Youth Group that there is a one look rule. You are allowed to look, and appreciate a good looking person of the opposite sex, as long as you look only once. Looking more then once, is lusting. Looking longer then a minute, is lusting. You can look and appreciate the beauty or good looks of people of the opposite sex, but to stare, is to lust. It worked for many of them, and I am not sure if it is scripturally accurate, but it does give a guideline to love by.

Michael Swenson Interesting, I think most artists and photographers or just the intensely observant would be classified as pervs by such standards. I rarely don't look at anything so briefly unless I am driving and things are passing by quickly. Whenever I have been anywhere there are people, I automatically study intensely human interactions, always have. But it is not just human beings that are so interesting but all of God's creation. If looking at something for any length of time, especially another human being automatically makes a person lust, we are in a very sad state of existence.
