

March 25, 2009

Dear Jane,

I want to formally apologize though I have before for the offenses I am aware of that I committed against you in the sight and hearing of GOD. That upon occasion I called you a bitch and very rarely in our marriage, a cunt. No matter how I was feeling toward you; whether I thought that after weeks of abuse or screaming endlessly at me - you deserved it, I should have never resorted to name calling and I do regret my immature behavior; not because of what you did to me, but because it is fundamentally wrong and bad behavior. How oft I wished my daily given titles of "queen", "czarina", "empress", "my better half" and "love of my life" were the more deservingly bestowed.

I am first and foremost a minister, a man of GOD, in service to the Living LORD JESUS CHRIST; as such, I was negligent in my duties toward you to make GOD's salvation clear to you because I had believed you to be saved, but in understanding your acts against me, it is clear you have never met the risen Savior or been baptized with His Holy Spirit. One day before you die, salvation may be of keen interest to you.

In Acts 2:38,39 in the Holy Bible, the inspired Word of GOD, we read the conditions for anyone to obtain Salvation and GOD's HOLY SPIRIT, whereby we know Him and are empowered by Him to be Free from the chains that bind us to sinful behavior and to remain free to live righteously. Righteous living does bring the lasting qualities that ensure happiness of genuine Love and Peace with GOD and our loved ones here on earth.

I know you do not know Him because of the numerous offenses you have committed and demonstrated lack of repentance. Repentance, true repentance, is of the utmost importance for any soul to come to know the Lord not just seek an intellectual understanding of Him. Repentance is also a gift that comes from GOD (James 1:17, Eph 2:8) and should be sought prayerfully in the quest to obtain His Blessings and Promises of Life Eternal and the knowledge of the Power of His Resurrection; among all the other virtuous gifts; the chief of which is His Own Holy Spirit.

Early in our marriage I caught you with ejaculate still in your mouth from an individual who obviously had no respect for GOD, himself, you, our marriage or anything holy. You actually thought it was funny. This act was so disturbing, I had to instantly suppress the knowledge and remembrance of it for my own sanity and safety as I desired to live a free man. I have not received the knowledge nor do I want to know how many people committed adultery with you over the years of our marriage. For my part, out of Love to GOD and love and respect for you, have been with no other person since the day we met.

I only strove the harder, worked more to provide and show I truly cared for you with the hopes that one day the sentiment would be returned. I know now you have never repented of the many sins of sexual immorality you have committed throughout your life; anyone who reads the Holy Bible can be in no doubt that such as die in their sins, unrepentant will burn in hell and the Lake of Fire. In addition, they will never know GOD in this life or experience lasting love and commitment that comes only from Him. Dying in misery at the last with dread and terror they will draw their last breaths hopeless. I do not wish that to be the case with you.

In 2002, when you started to poison me with rat poison in the orange juice, I can only reflect back to you that this was incredibly cruel to do to a man who out of love was working 40-60 hour weeks while also going to school full time and getting licensed in real estate all simultaneously in a genuine effort to provide for your comfort, security and safety. Do you recall the many 100 hour weeks I worked in our struggle to break free from poverty? Before GOD, my primary motivation was that I loved you and wanted you to be able to retire financially sound. I made up my mind to take care of you in your coming years and by GOD's grace would have; but your actions have prevented it. For my part, I find it unbelievable that someone who was faithful and loyal, who gave you every check he made and let you spend it as you wished, who cooked for, massaged and predominantly praised you would be treated as you have done me. In fact, not even the worst criminals in all of history have been treated as cruelly.

You poisoned me over a prolonged period of time, attacking my health on a cellular level because of greed, and an underlying hatred of men and insecurity due to how many times you and the men you've known have been sexually disloyal and unfaithful in your intimate relationships. You took out your self-loathing (and loathing of the men who you've known to be unfaithful) on an innocent soul of such. When confronted by Dr. Joy and Dr. Cruz, who should have reported you to the police when they discovered you had been poisoning me, their own greed (the $50,000 each you promised them for murdering me plus the money they would have made harvesting my organs and doing transplants) caused them to conspire with you. You didn't ask; nor did you care how they would murder me, your faithful husband; whom; had you kept in good health by not poisoning me, would have made you FAR more money than the pittance life insurance policies. Your fear of losing me to some other woman caused you to have further incentive to try and murder me, like you rejoiced when Romeo died because of your insanely possessive and controlling nature. Your mockery after he was shot of when would I ever learn my lesson is just another of the many offenses of evil you have committed.

You obviously, can not imagine how it feels that the only person on earth you ever loved or cared about:

Swallowed other mens' ejaculate during marriage and thought it was funny;

Poisoned and betrayed numerous times with intent to inflict injury and death on that naively trusting soul;

You obviously have never felt the pain of watching the only person you ever loved committing adultery with some of the lowest characters ever to incarnate and when they complained watching your spouse think to spiritually hide her crimes before God by renouncing her marital vows. Flesh of my flesh and bones of my bones; my body was torn as you did so, this torture you and they committed in the sight of GOD.

Falsifying lasting police and medical records your assaults on my person have been perpetuated in order to cover up your crimes; so that the rest of my life has been dramatically adversely affected. You and your conspirators have not repented of felony offenses in attempted homicides, felony kidnapping by deceit which resulted in illegal incarceration, grand theft by fraud of the better part of my estate and numerous assaults through multiple poisonings on my person.

As I spontaneously bruised from the blood thinners in the rat poisoning and caused me to lose so much vitality as to be unable to perform sexually, you had the audacity to blame me as if it were my fault.

As you watched me grow more ill daily, you screamed at me for not working harder and doing more chores around the house all the while you knew you were directly to blame for my failing strength and lack of energy.

How can I ever forget that after you had poisoned me, betrayed me to murdering doctors and nurses at Deaconess, I still tried my best to return to work in order to buy you a special tenth Anniversary ring and earrings custom made. The most expensive jewelry I've ever purchased in my life in a vain attempt to let you know that despite it all, I still wanted to keep my vows to GOD to love and cherish you EVEN THOUGH OUR TENANT TOLD ME HE HAD TO LEAVE BECAUSE YOU HAD PROPOSITIONED HIM FOR SEX!!!!!!!!!!

While I struggled to go on loving you and fighting for our marriage, making excuses like the cops must have threatened you, I could not continue to do so when numerous other men and women committed adultery with you besides the cops and eventually the disturbing remembrance returned of you smiling at me while your mouth was filled with the schmag of the scum buckling up his pants and whispering to you, "Whew, that was close." From not so far away I heard your reply, "Shhh, he doesn't know..." I had to realize that I married not the answer to my prayers but the opposite in my quest for a faithful, loving, wise, powerful prophetess and I have suffered dearly for it. May other men and women of God learn never to trust lying lips. When I asked you to be my wife; I was very explicit, that if you could not be faithful, please say no and I would go my way, instead not only did you waste 10 years of my life in slave labor, but another 5+ in tortuous agony few can imagine and I still haven't recovered from. What I thought was a blessing from God in my wishful thinking turned out to be the most disgusting, degenerate, defiled, debased, revolting, repulsive and cruel person I've ever had the unfortunate experience of knowing by far (save for the scum you introduced me to in these hellish experiences).

While having sex with men (cops) who plotted to destroy my life with these evil actions; having orgies in wantonness in a home with sauna, Jacuzzi, and luxurious appointments that my hard work helped you get and years of effort improving your credit and income; with furniture and art I labored gruelingly to purchase, you watched while pretending to be married to me as due to your own evil attempts on my life and those you conspired with, I lost my truck, my home and most of my worldly possessions and all the while you could have prevented it by telling the truth and turning in murderers and sex offenders making the public safe from heinous criminals and rightfully doing no further injury to me and my estate. I literally came within days of dying homeless in the streets! To this day; thanks to your crimes and theirs, my liberty and my life are still at risk.

It is intensely offensive to watch you, who was my wife out of billions of women, join mass murderers and sex offenders in the effort to conceal your own crimes when you know I'm a devout man of God opposing all such acts vehemently. Watching you, who was supposed to be my life-long loving bride, side with satanic influences in our nation, people that have knowingly chosen to fight against God and all true Christians. You have had orgies with enemies of Christ and men that sought to destroy my soul and by watching your whoredoms, you enjoyed doing so while leaving me, your faithful husband, struggling for his life; struggling to live to testify to save innocent souls from the mass murderers you conspired with and are still loose because you chose to cover up your crimes and theirs thereby. The Holy Scriptures make it clear that those who do so are damning themselves. (Proverbs 28:13, 1Jn1:9, 2Th2:12 These revelations came from not only my own eye sight but by revelations of the Holy Ghost (Eph 5:13), to lie against God and the Holy Ghost is very dangerous Mk 3:29, Acts 5) It is the work of the Holy Ghost to reprove persons on earth of their sins; not to condemn them, but to let them know God sees and knows all they do and there is nothing hidden to Him with the hopes that those who are convicted of their sins will repent; not add to them further by murdering and torturing God's servants whom He uses to do so. (John 14-17, Dan 2:22,28; Amos 3:7)

You are experiencing just a portion of what it will be like if you don't repent for there is nothing hidden that won't be revealed (Mt 10:26, Lk 8:17, 12:2) You can either confess and forsake your sins and your crimes now or you will be among those whose crimes will be revealed to their everlasting shame (Dan 12:1-4, 1Cor4:5, Heb 4:13). Without Repentance none can enter the Kingdom of God and in order to repent one must be willing to face their sins and crimes and acknowledge that those sins are evil with a desire to never again do so wickedly. This can not occur while you participate in a conspiracy that leaves innocent souls suffering and in danger as daily you add to your sins of omission and commission thereby. Shall daily the load of filth weigh you down to the torments and flames of hell or shall you be free at last by siding with righteousness?

In fact your offenses which are all crimes punishable by death under the Old Covenant and even in our nation which has unfortunately become more wicked, corrupt and perverse than ever before (due to the lies of evolution being taught in our public schools and the rewriting of our history), by years of incarceration are so severe and so numerous, I couldn't explain them all in a very large book.

I remember watching Schindler's List with you and you feigning concern for the holocaust victims, when in reality you joined the exact evil that happened in Nazi Germany right here in America. How do you think it started Jane? Greed, corruption, vice, torture, murder, mutilations, cannibalism, occult satanic practices, and every form of evil loose on earth. Yet, in order to cover up your own crimes of attempted homicide on my person and aggravated assaults by poisoning, you let mass murderers like Dr. James Joy and the psychopaths calling themselves doctors and nurses in our local hospitals go free. You left sex offenders for cops loose in Sandpoint, Bonner County and Spokane police departments. These were the exact kinds of crimes that took place just prior to and during the last holocaust of WWII. And YOU, had orgies with the scum. Yea, good acting, Jane, when in reality you have committed the same crimes as those who are properly burning in hell. You actually embraced devils sexually and have enabled the same level of evil that engrossed the entire world in war to run free right here in what should be a peaceful retreat for sane worshippers of God as our founders intended. Yea, you are a good actress, shedding false tears at will in order to engender sympathy from those who don't know your true level of insanity. If you ever actually get a conscience, you might consider that you have chosen sides very poorly. In that day, turn these scum in regardless of personal consequences to you in this life and you might actually then be able to stand in the presence of God unashamed in eternity.

You and your conspirators introduced me to the sufferings of Christ as He was forsaken by all even those closest to Him. My acquaintances and colleagues, though I fought off my death bed to try and make their region safer from serious criminals all shunned me thinking something was wrong with me for telling them of the murderers on the loose because the cops I notified decided to have sex with you rather than investigate the crimes I reported. Then the doctors and nurses at NIBH were brought in by your lies in order to once again discredit me when I tried to tell our so called friends the Westbrooks the truth of what was going on. Friends, family, society while I stand risking my liberty and my life in their defense have mocked, slandered and insulted me all because you and your conspirators have lied prolifically to cover up your crimes! I understand perhaps as few do what it's like to be forsaken for standing against sin and crime in the world.

I'll wager only God knows the level of torture and suffering you and your conspirators have put me through. To this day I have moments of pain so great that I have to battle the thoughts that perhaps it's time for me to go on pain medication, the kinds that are so toxic it ultimately results in early death just to endure it. I have moments when I almost resign to medications when you know how much I detest them and when I almost resign my life altogether when you know I'm no quitter. So be sure of this that if you do not have enough of a conscience or integrity left anywhere in your soul that I will NEVER give up until I succeed in getting all of you who are involved in these heinous crimes arrested or until I am completely incapacitated. Even should you and your detestable cohorts succeed in murdering me, you can not escape Divine Justice and all of your acts you have not confessed and forsaken on earth will only be revealed to your everlasting shame, conviction and condemnation. Now is the time for all souls to stop foolishly thinking that murder and adding more bloodshed to what they've already done will somehow hide from God and the Holy Angels these wicked acts. Therefore, be mature and turn yourself and them all in for their heinous crimes and the chains that bind you and are dragging you to the flames of hell will be broken. It is unfortunate that so far you have been right that you and your conspirators have done such excessive evil that decent citizens have chosen to believe you even though they knew you to lie regularly simply because a conviction that is over twenty years old taints my own testimony though I am and actually was truthful among them daily. How does it feel to know that you've done things so evil that people don't even believe the evidence in front of their eye balls? Do you have any conscience at all? Anywhere?

I have tried with all my strength to save lives; when I was yet unaware of your complicity did the right duty for any citizen and went to the police about the homicide attempts. You could have helped me, but to do so would have meant that you would have had to clear your conscience and admit your own participation. Nevertheless, the mass murderers at Deaconess and NIBH would have been arrested to your credit. Instead, there is no telling how many others have suffered or been murdered since. When Lehman came over to your house with that other cop shortly after you moved out and threatened to kill me if you didn't have sex with them; you could have recorded their threats; you're smart enough; and rapists would have been properly imprisoned. Instead you saw it as your get out of jail free card and gladly performed for numerous corrupt authorities in disgusting and debased manners that I will spare details of. In addition you then wore wires conspiring with these criminal authorities that are murdering and otherwise preying upon innocent citizens because I have been trying to expose them in defense of the public who are as I was naively unaware of this great evil loose in our country. When during this time I struggled to forgive your betrayals and former offenses I suggested we go to Western Pleasure Guest Ranch and rent a cabin, you took the idea and committed adultery along with the numerous other persons you met at the bar in Hope with strangers on your Friday night escapades. In fact during the time, you left me in agonizing pain without health to earn a living your cavorting was so renowned that even in my cabin officers could be heard boasting audibly what a "slut" you were. David, Neu, Knaggs, Lehman, Burt, Larry and many others both in on the conspiracy and those greedy, selfish individuals like Neu who knew I was very ill and still had the audacity to screw my still married wife and take her to meet family with full knowledge you were still married to me; all with the hopes to land on easy street off years of my grueling labor. Yep, word spread quickly that a rich woman was leaving her husband; so lets all be greedy, unscrupulous, depraved and degenerate souls and try to win the lotto by screwing her was the game plan of the many sick people that defiled and debased themselves with you; even though her husband is still alive and at least on paper they're still married. In all the revelations, you never turned down a single volunteer (except for perhaps Koch). In fact, so numerous and despicable were your acts of adultery while leaving your faithful husband in a home without proper sewage and running water; so sick he had to beg a minister to bring him food; and with so many men and women as to be infamous in all heaven and earth. Your idolatry so prolific it oozed like etheric sewage and vomit from your house. Even my own brother wasn't immune to your sickening behavior. Private investigators have witnessed sleaze in this region like never before only in your case it coupled with conspiracies of attempted homicides, assaults, sex offenses, fraud, kidnapping and estate theft.

Your evil and cruelty went so far that after I told you I could see you whoring yourself out to the scum of the earth cops who should have arrested you and the mass murderers loose in our regional hospitals, and the many other individuals you had sex with while leaving me to die in agony; you thought to hide your crimes against God and man by performing a ritual of renouncing your marital vows. I watched from where I lay in bed suffering due to your crimes of poisoning me and betraying me to the mass murderers at Deaconess and the second time to the mass murderers at NIBH and watched you renounce your marital vows because the scum complained that while you were committing adultery with them I would call to let you know I could see you in the act; but you didn't care; nor did you care that I felt a physical rending in my soul as you renounced your vows; nor did you care that your perversions tortured me with how sick and deplorable you acted. Scumbag Knaggs couldn't earn a living for himself so he partnered with you to live off years of my grueling hard work when you know I worked all the way up from poverty level. I was your loyal husband who never committed adultery once, who worked so hard it nearly killed me to give you all the many things you said you wanted and as thanks for my efforts, my loyalty and my misplaced love, I watched as you became a schmag depository to any filth that volunteered, as you committed adultery not only with cops and colleagues, but my only sibling even though we were adopted, that gave you one last chance to repent of your crimes and turn in the fascists that are every bit as evil as the scum in Nazi Germany, but instead of being repulsed by them you had orgies. I had to deal with that the woman I called my queen, swallowed men's ejaculate while we were married and I was working hard, poisoned me repeatedly over an extended period of time, betrayed me to vile souls that thought murdering me was funny and that you all did it in a way as to cause prolonged, severe pain and suffering so as not to be able to take care of myself. You robbed me of my wages, drained our bank accounts, defrauded me of the bulk of our estate and lifelong earnings, had orgies with felony sex offenders in uniform, betrayed me twice to sick mass murdering physicians and nurses and have left all of these incredible scum loose in society to harm other innocent souls in order to cover up your own heinous offenses. Rest assured damnation is just for all who fail to repent of the level of evil you have all committed and your crimes are not hidden before God. You blamed me for not coming to your rescue when Knaggs pretended to threaten to kill you (he told you just to prove I didn't care about you or would fight for you even though at the time I was so sick I could barely crawl out of bed to go to the bathroom or eat) and forced you to whore yourself out further with the scum doctors involved in this horrendous conspiracy of corruption that exceeds the level of Sodom before God annihilated those wicked souls with fire and brimstone. I gave you every chance to repent, to turn in these scum who are so lame they screwed around on their wives and neglected their children, and many of the citizens like Dave and Elliott and Neu just wanted to luxuriate in the proceeds of my labors not caring that you were so filthy and disgusting as to whore yourself out while still married to your sick and dying husband DUE TO YOUR CRIMES! In fact if I were to count every sickening act and show the details of your acts and that of these scumbags, few would argue that you and they are not some of the most revolting and vile persons ever to incarnate; that your cruelty has never even been perpetrated to genocidal maniacs as just punishment let alone to a hard working loyal husband that never once slept around on you, hit you or abused you in any way but only gave you every penny I earned for you to spend as you pleased and this is how you thanked me for years of grueling work. You may have fooled certain people who just can't believe anyone could be as cruel as you, but you don't fool God and unless you come clean and restore to me my estate, testifying against these losers like Knaggs who wanted to profit off years of my hard work and sleep with a person whose picture should be next to the definition of the epitome of a psychotic whore like yourself rather than actually earn a living like honest men; then as you near the fateful day when you will breathe your last; you will do it with terror as the flames of hell justly call for your depraved soul.

Your salvation lies; unfortunately for you, in open confession of these crimes, in turning in the sex offenders and mass murderers regardless of their threats to kill us; and in facing the consequences of your excessively evil and cruel actions in this life; or how shall you escape the Divine justice that awaits all who do so wickedly. No amount of private weeping, prayers or fasting will be answered from on high if you do not confess your own crimes and turn in these who have conspired with you in abominations that should have never been conceived let alone done. For you will have not only the crimes you committed against me to answer for, but the blood of innocent souls that were murdered by the maggots who tried to kill me and the tortures of men and women who actually cherish their marriages by the raping scumbags in uniform that you whored yourself out to and from the videos (Akashic Records, Books of Remembrance, note all deeds both good and evil and none but the Redeemed will have their evil deeds removed from those records); (even though in order to appease your sick and defiled conscience you told yourself you did it because they threatened to kill me (and you would have followed; so no loose ends); yes, from the videos no one could tell you were coerced as you appeared to whole heartedly enjoy being "trained" by these horrific sex offenders that should be in prison; not free and definitely not in uniform! You are truly one of the most disgusting, degenerate, deplorable, repulsive, reprobate and utterly vile persons I've ever known or even studied about in all of history; I only hope you will redeem your revolting character as it now is in that soon you will stand against this great evil that you have participated in against not only my own innocent person, but those they have tortured and murdered since and will if they are not arrested for their own good and that of public safety. I hope that before you die, you might actually get a conscience that causes you to realize that other persons watched as you committed these offenses against me and you have tremendously adversely affected such persons with the heinousness of your crimes and theirs. You have sown a level of evil that screams for everlasting vengeance and damnation if left loose and for the very fires of hell to consume such souls from the face of the earth forever. May you escape by doing as the Holy Scriptures command to confess and forsake these your many terrible crimes and separate yourselves from the abominable attachments you have made in the debased and defiled bed of whoredoms, adulteries and idolatries. Amen.

Imagine, praying for years to GOD for a loving, faithful, wise spouse and thinking that GOD had answered your prayers only to be married to the complete opposite of everything you esteem and value. Your whoredoms, betrayals and homicide attempts have left me in excruciating pain everyday for years now, have left murderers and rapists loose to harm others, and on top of all of it you robbed me of the best of our possessions and properties. While still married you advertised yourself online and you recently sold the properties we had espied together and I had figured how to develop. You ended up with all my clients and income of years and have sent me not one promised dollar. While I fought to keep from dying homeless on the streets, you luxuriated off the real and liquid assets you commandeered through fraud and outright theft by draining our bank accounts and taking possessions from our home when I was too ill to defend myself; sick, fighting for my life in bed. You actually boasted of your sexual exploits and wantonly showed me hickeys on your inner thighs while I struggled to yet somehow salvage against all odds a marriage that should have never been.

If there ever comes a time, when the illegal kidnapping and incarceration at NIBH which has left me with over $15,000 in unjustified bills, when the attack on my life, my health, my ability to earn a living, my credit, my credibility or any other of your defiled and depraved behavior ever bothers your conscience, then there might be a chance for you to actually repent and come to Know GOD in this life and enter into heaven when you breathe your last.

Now years later I still struggle every day to be able to do even the simplest tasks and the person most directly responsible for my daily agony is you, the only person I ever really loved or cared about (and yet now I realize I didn't love you at all but a figment of my imagination that I superimposed over your true self in order to tell others I was happily married to a loving, wise, wonderful wife) and yet the most insanely cruel I've ever known by far. I hope that you will not do further injury to me by betraying me to my death or imprisonment and letting these offenders that have all agreed to lie with you to cover up murders, sex offenses and a growing crime in this country by corrupt authorities – estate theft. Christ tells us not to curse anyone; not even our adversaries, but your conspirators tempt even the holiest of persons in that regard.

Repentance is not just feeling sorry for evil things past, repentance is to loathe those things and your own bad choices so strongly that you weep before GOD not only to forgive you and cleanse you from all that defilement, but to give you His Holy Spirit to strengthen you so that you never do those things again and in fact do your best to live in such a way as to make reparations as much as possible for those wicked deeds done.

Whether or not you elect to separate yourself from these detestable souls who have participated in these abominations and atrocities will be up to you; you still could save others from these wicked persons by telling the truth in the upcoming investigations.

The scriptures that can not be broken make it clear, that without confessing and forsaking our sins there is no salvation and those that cover up their crimes will have them exposed to their everlasting shame, but those who confess and forsake shall know the Salvation of GOD and the Joy of Paradise.

Perhaps there is some small decency left somewhere in you, only GOD knows because you have given no such indication as you never once prayed in my hearing or in my sight and forsook all godly fellowship to cavort with those on the path to hellfire. But if there is some decency, let that part of you cry out to GOD and Christ for repentance, for salvation, for His Holy Spirit; to KNOW Him, and in that moment you do; I pray He will hear you, and comfort and strengthen your soul with His Holy Spirit to live honorably and righteously from that moment forward. Perhaps then; if I am still alive in flesh and blood, and if for some unknown reason I still suffer, perhaps you might be so good as to offer a prayer for the Healing He purchased for us all to be manifest in my own body and person. Until then, while I seek to be able to sincerely and truly forgive you and all who have participated in this incredible injustice and cruelty against me, I must; as is my duty, also seek their arrests for the public good and safety; as no one deserves to be treated as I have endured thus far. Maybe one day, I might find someone who appreciates love, respect, loyalty and dignifies herself with the virtues that can only come from GOD, until then; know that the person I've known best on earth has introduced me to such hellish suffering as to leave me perplexed in finding adjectives to describe the severity of it. So while I apologize for inferring that you and those who have conspired with you will find it difficult to obtain salvation, I want to be clear the expression came from physical, mental and emotional anguish and pain that few can imagine. To be sure -- you, they and everyone who draws breath has an equal opportunity to obtain salvation as the Gospel is given freely to all souls. If you are grateful that the only Perfect and Holy Being ever to incarnate died for you, ask Him to Give you His Spirit and Strength to Live Like It! It is my fervent and sincere prayer for your sake; for my sake and indeed the sake of all creation that we all would. Amen.

Your offenses are infamous and grievous indeed, but God's Grace is, miraculously, still even Greater and, if you are willing, will work in you to forgive, heal, comfort and save you to the utmost even if all those around us forsake truth and righteousness. Even after the evil and suffering you've put me through. I find that the reason my heart hurts the most in all of this, is that no matter how hard I have tried to despise you thoroughly and completely for what you've done, I still care for you or I wouldn't hope and pray for your salvation. It angers me, because I know that even if a truly miraculous event occurred and you actually did repent and turn to righteousness, I can never trust you again, be around, eat and drink with you out of justified concern that your actions indicate you might either be a legitimate psychopath or genuinely dissociative schizophrenic, that you might be so mentally ill that you have involuntary relapses of judgment or actions; that you might be so deranged that you don't even realize the evil you do; but I know what you have done you did with evil, sick pleasure and intent; taking out on your loving, loyal husband whatever your deluded brain thought to do to anyone who has ever done you ill throughout your life. Yes, angered, that despite all my efforts, your actions and that of those evil souls who joined themselves in these crimes have destroyed what is supposed to be holy and sacred matrimony beyond reparation. Frankly, apart from great miracles, your actions indicate you belong under 24 hour surveillance the rest of your life.

In prayer and meditation, I considered that if I were to die soon; unable to overcome the effects of your homicide attempts by poison and the doctors' homicide attempts by the incompatible blood transfusion and suffocation (that has caused extreme prolonged suffering due to graft versus host complications combined with my genetic trait of "Wilson's Disease"), I did not want my last words to you to convey or infer that I think you will burn in hell, but rather to share the truth, that I am still trying to heal in every way from what has been done to me; including my broken heart and that in my heart of hearts, I hope that one day you will truly seek GOD and Christ to KNOW Him; not just read about him or think well of yourself because you study books of supposed higher learning which can not save or introduce you to the Person of Christ; or that because you say some ritual repeat after me prayer that gives you a ticket to paradise regardless of your actions. The act of water baptism without true repentance is a useless and meaningless gesture; in your case was a worthless ritual because you have never truly repented of your many sins and crimes before God. If you would be among the Redeemed, you must seek to Know Him personally (by fulfilling what Peter commanded by the Holy Ghost recorded in Acts 2:38-40; in this manner was the Gospel declared – REPENT (turn from every evil and wicked way, stop disobeying God’s Holy Commandments)! And be baptized (by total immersion preferably in a flowing river to demonstrate you are putting to death the old sinful person; washing away your filthy sins; coming up clean and a new creation to live righteously unto God), everyone of you in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost (this name is declared YAHOSHUAH THE MESSIAH for “Jesus” said he came in His Father’s Name (YAHOVAH) this name fits the tetragrammaton; the mystic symbol of the Star of David and the Tree of Life, it is aptly defined as the Eternal GOD Exists Eternally or “I AM THAT I AM” so YAHO-vah Incarnated in His “Son” and became our Salvation or Yaho-SHUAH) Jesus is a translation of a translation that stems from the Latin Vulgate and has been so popularized that the Name still evokes all power in Heaven and Earth when mixed with Faith, Love and Righteousness) for the remission of your sins... and you shall receive the Promise of the Holy Ghost...) and the Power of His Resurrection and in those days He will give you the strength to mortify the wicked deeds of the flesh and live as a daughter of the Most High GOD, a true princess, a true queen; an individual that will have no shame in the Presence of the King of kings, our Living Omnipotent LORD and SAVIOR, JESUS CHRIST, YAHOSHUAH AM MESCHIACH, and all the holy angels! May it become so to His Glory and your everlasting joy; Amen.

Perhaps it was my marital vows; perhaps I believe that if you could be saved there is hope for EVERYONE; including myself; but I can not help but close with:

Love; not the kind of love that a husband has for a wife or a lover for his Flower of the Field, but the kind of Love that perseveres and rises above all evil; the kind of Love that comes from God and Christ and is not willing that any should perish; not even someone who has committed offenses as heinous as yours. I hope one day before you die, you’ll actually realize and be remorseful unto repentance and Salvation; so I might see you in Heaven where God remembers not our sins or iniquities against us or there would be sorrow; so I pray that it is for all of us; that we remember only the good done or there would be sorrow. Until then, I, regrettably, must labor to get you and your conspirators properly put behind bars for public safety. I wish you and all of these wicked souls had not made the extremely evil and bad choices you did; I hope in the future none of you will do so vilely again. Sincerely:
